THE HARTFORD HERALD.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY, JULY 7, 1886.

NO. 27.

(WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD.)

THOS. GILLSTRAP.

What is to be will,
and as it is to be, so it will be,
Although we may not agree,
Nor see things in their true light.

How often do we find and pine,
When we are not in the true line,
And bearing blessings in disguise.

The God that rules the Universe,
Is not the God that rules the world,

The darkest clouds; he will dispense
And calm again the troubled sea.

Then with out of his tempestuous sea,
We may not see what is to be will,
Lest any man of works should boast,
The entire eave come on.

REFLECTIONS.

The moment a man is satisfied with himself, everybody else is dissatisfied with him.

Men say of women what pleases them; women do with men what pleases them.

There are three things in speech that ought to be considered before they are spoken—the manner, the place and the time.

The test recipe for going through life in a commendable way is to feel that each one needs all the kindness he can get from others in the world.

Don't jump out of bed immediately on awaking in the morning. Don't forget to go to bed with cold feet. Don't sleep in the same undergarments that are worn during the day. Don't sleep in a room that is not well ventilated.
Don't sit at a desk in a room that is not well ventilated. Don't sit in a room with the windows closed; the air is not good for you.

Don't go to bed with cold feet. Don't sleep in the same undergarments that are worn during the day. The sea evaporated forty odd miles from the shore, and all the springs were so dry that we had to dig down to get water. Don't jump out of bed when the stomach is not empty. Don't eat a meal before going to bed. Don't go to bed with your clothes on. Don't eat a meal before going to bed.

Don't eat a meal before going to bed.
Don't eat a meal before going to bed.

COMMON SCHOOL LAWS.

Digest of Amendments Enacted by the Late General Assembly, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Pickett has issued the following circular, giving a digest of amendments to the Constitution of the State, enacted by the General Assembly.

1. County Taxation repealed. District Taxation substituted as follows: A tax may be voted at any time, once a year, after fifteen days notice, duly posted, for the payment of the school tax, for the extension of the district school for a longer term, or for the payment of any debt contracted by the Trustees on account of the County School Fund, and may be assessed twenty-five cents in any one year on the dollar's worth of taxable property in the district.

2. Site for school houses may be purchased, a tax being levied on the property or funds, without the assent of the people to a vote. Last sentence of section 7, Art. VIII, Common School Laws repealed. (Compare Art. VI, See 7.)

3. Board of Trustees adopting text books, from lists recommended by the State Board of Education, to be used in their respective districts, the County Superintendents shall adopt, from their respective books, to be used in the school.

4. The County Judge of any county authorized to make anallowance of one hundred dollars any year, for providing necessary text books to indigent children, provided they attend the public school.

5. Five hundred dollars may be appropriated by the State Board of Education for the benefit of the State Teachers' Institute.

6. State Teachers' Association may select its own time and place for holding its annual meeting.

7. It is the duty of the superintendent of public instruction, whenever it shall come to his knowledge, to report any habitual neglect of duty, or any misappropriation of a sum of money received by him from the State Board of Education, from any one of the County Superintendents of common schools of this Commonwealth to the County Attorney, whose duty it shall be to prosecute such persons in the Circuit Court of the county in which misappropriation of funds may occur.

8. No person shall be eligible to the office of County Superintendent, if he is not at the time twenty-one years old.

9. County Superintendent shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county at the regular August election in 1886, and every four years thereafter.

10. County Superintendents elected and qualified under this act, shall hold their offices four years, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

11. No person shall be eligible to the office of County Superintendent unless he shall have first obtained a certificate of qualification from the State Board of Examiners, which may be granted on an examination held before him, or upon a written examination held before him by the State Board of Examiners.

12. In the case of death, removal, resignation, or inability of the County Superintendent elected, or in the event of a vacancy, or for any other cause, the presiding Judge of said county is hereby authorized to appoint a successor, fully qualified, and in the office of the County Board, during the time when such shall be elected.

13. Under no circumstances shall any cause for any district, unless for its removal, be considered after the third day of June of the year of which the census was taken.

14. Under penalty of a fine of from twenty-five to fifty dollars, County Superintendents required to report for payment, at the legal periods, schools duly assessed.

15. No County Superintendent shall be allowed to buy for himself, or any teacher's claim, directly or indirectly, or to pay for the sale of any books, under penalty of removal from office by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

16. School Districts: Laying off, altering, or abolishing, rendered under the former law.

17. Elections for School Trustees from 1 o'clock P. M. to 3 o'clock P. M.

18. Any pupil child reported in any district, as being absent from school, or district, to attend the school without payment, to the teacher of the State and the county, per capita apportioned each of the other children of the school, unless the good behavior of the child, school should exceed the extent of his district.

19. No certificate, except first-class and second-class shall be issued to the student, unless his conduct is good.

20. Superintendent of Public Instruction may recommend able and experienced normal instructors to conduct the County Teachers' Institutes, whose pay shall be determined, and paid by the County Superintendent, out of the funds raised from the teachers and other members of the Institute.

21. No tax shall be levied upon the property of a poor man, or for the benefit of a school for colored children, and no tax shall be levied upon the property or poll, or any service required of any citizen, for the benefit of a school for white children.

22. Provision for special act for the monthly payment of the wages of the teachers of the public schools, or by law, for the payment of the wages of the school teachers, to whom are ascribed conditions to borrow the money and provide the interest, the State bearing security for the borrowed money on the forty per centum and the sixty per centum apportioned to the school by the school board.

23. Provision for special act for the monthly payment of the wages of the teachers of the public schools, or by law, for the payment of the wages of the school teachers, to whom are ascribed conditions to borrow the money and provide the interest, the State bearing security for the borrowed money on the forty per centum and the sixty per centum apportioned to the school by the school board.

24. A girl's every day toilet is a part of her character.

25. The man who is slovenly in the morning is not to be trusted, however fine she may look in the evening.

No matter how humble your room may be, there are eight things it should contain: a chair, a washstand, a wash-tub, a toilet, a hair-dresser, and tooth-brush.

These are just as essential as your breakfast, before which you should make use of them.

26. A girl who fails to provide for her children with care, appliances, not only make a great mistake, but commit a sin of omission.

Look tidy in the morning, and after dinner, work is over, improve your toilet.

27. Make it a rule of your daily life to "dress up" for the afternoon.

Your dress, may, not need to be, anything better than cotton; but with a well-arranged hair-dresser, you can have an air of self-respect and satisfaction, that invariably comes with being well-dressed.

28. A girl with fine sensibilities cannot help feeling disgraced and awkward in a dirty dress, with her head unkempt, if it is a stranger or a neighbor should come in.

Moreover, your self-respect should never descend appearing for your body.

29. You should make it a point to look as well as you can, even if you think nobody will notice you.

30. OFFICE OF JACOB'S PHARMACY, ATLANTA, June 13, 1886.

31. Six months ago, we received a large order from B. B. B. for our simple organ, and have now received a general expression for Speaker Carlile for the presidency.

32. The question was first suggested by Senator Book, who is himself a speaker, and the author of the speech of the foreign birth. The silvery-haired and tongue-tied Breckinridge spoke for the Blugrass district, followed by ex-Gov. McCreary, pleading the "hemp and coal" theory, and the "no tax" theory.

33. The State Board of Education, the eastern part of the State, Mr. Robertson being the Secretary of the National Congressional Committee, Some time ago, Mr. B. B. B. was a candidate, and has the machine well.

34. The fact of remaining Isolde of Postmire makes it all that
